Sheila Harper, Founder and President of SaveOne, an international outreach ministry for those suffering in silence after an abortion

Sheila Harper is the Founder and President of SaveOne, an international outreach ministry for men and women suffering in silence after an abortion. After enduring seven years of personal anguish over choosing abortion, she found restoration and forgiveness through Jesus Christ. Sheila now lives in Nashville, TN with her husband, Jack Harper who pastors CrossRoads Church in Antioch, TN, and two sons.

SaveOne currently has 181 chapters in 18 countries. Sheila has traveled the world speaking on the topic of abortion recovery as well as training abortion recovery leaders and facilitators.

Shelia is currently studying to obtain her Master's degree in biblical counseling and is the author of six books, "SaveOne-A Guide to Emotional Healing after Abortion" which has been translated and distributed in 15 languages, "SaveOne-The Men's Study", which has been translated in 4 languages, "May I Have This Dance? A Journal through Pregnancy", "Survivor" which is her personal story of abortion, "Is There Not a Cause?", and "SaveOne-The Ripple Effect" which is her most recent book.
